Hair is storytelling. It's your most powerful form of personal expression - and I'm here to help you tell your story beautifully.

With over 18 years as a European artist and hair transformation specialist, I've built my reputation on bold creativity, technical precision, and an unwavering belief in hair as art. My work draws from Europe's rich artistic heritage, seamlessly blending Italian elegance with British edge to create something entirely unique.

I specialise in transformative cuts and colour that truly reflect your individuality. I love the tension between opposites—fusing clean shapes with lived-in texture, precision cutting with expressive colour, fashion-forward concepts with timeless beauty. Whether I'm crafting bold editorial looks or wearable styles with an unexpected twist, every choice is intentional, innovative and rooted in storytelling.

As an award-winning hairdresser and Davroe creative artist, I also educate professionals across the UK and internationally. My courses are immersive journeys into the cultural and historical context of hair, designed to help other creatives discover and strengthen their own artistic voice.

For me, great hair transcends technique - it's a feeling, a statement and a celebration of exactly who you are.
